

AN ARMY OF PROBLEM SOLVERS

RECONCILIATION AND THE SOLUTIONS ECONOMY

BY SHAUN LONEY
WITH WILL BRAUN

Across Canada, social enterprises are creating employment and strengthening Indigenous communities.

Come to hear author of An Army of Problem Solvers and co-founder of Aki Energy and other innovative social businesses, Shaun Loney, share stories about:

- Indigenous social enterprises in Manitoba that installed $8 million of clean, job-creating geothermal energy with no gov't funding
- A 13-acre farm is transforming the food economy in a remote First Nations community struggling with diabetes
- Social procurement in Winnipeg's north end created 200 jobs for Indigenous youth

Learn about social enterprise in New Brunswick and how we can create our own army of problem-solvers!

Open to everyone.

When: May 7, 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Where: NB College of Craft and Design
457 Queen Street, Fredericton

Cost: $70 (incl. lunch, materials & HST)

FREE for Indigenous youth thanks to the sponsorship of the NB Aboriginal Peoples Council.
